

Do your literacy strategies suit the demands of a changing Curriculum?

Curriculum Corporation presents

MULTILITERACIES: CRACKING THE CODE OF VISUAL TEXTS

Featuring Dr Michèle Anstey and Dr Geoff Bull

Friday 2 May, 2008 ▲ 8.30am to 3.00pm ▲ Citigate Central, Haymarket

THE PRESENTERS

Michèle Anstey and Geoff Bull are highly acclaimed authors and classroom practitioners who have facilitated professional development with over 10,000 teachers during the past five years.

THE WORKSHOP

These three interactive sessions have been designed to provide P-8 teachers with knowledge and ideas about multiliteracies, visual literacy and critical literacy that they can immediately implement in their classrooms.

The sessions focus on:

- developing the language and knowledge to support critical analysis of the still and moving images students encounter each day
- developing a vocabulary to use with their students when analysing texts containing still and moving images.
- ideas for learning activities that focus on teaching students to critically analyse (consume) and shape (produce) texts

Engage in hands on activities that demonstrate how students can plan and produce multi-modal texts that use both visual and linguistic material.

A full copy of the slides used in the sessions will be provided along with the opportunity to purchase a discounted copy of Anstey and Bull's celebrated text Teaching and Learning Multiliteracies.
